

Allan Ribbink, Director

ribbink@predc.ca

Allan is a lifelong resident of Bruce County, raised on a dairy farm located in the Tiverton area. Mr. Ribbink brings extensive experience and knowledge of agriculture, the local economy and business development to the PREDC Board of Directors.

In 1979, Mr. Ribbink completed studies at Centralia College of Agriculture and earned his diploma in Agricultural Business Management. Upon completing his studies, Allan began a sheep farming operation. His operation has grown to a capacity of 1000 breeding ewes and 2000 feeder lambs serving markets throughout North America.

Allan's acquired expertise in agriculture has led to him being sought after to provide consulting services internationally: several regions across North and South America; the Middle East; and the Isle of Mann, located in the Irish Sea.

Locally, Allan has served on the Ontario Sheep and Services Committee and the Board of Directors for the Bruce County Federation of Agriculture. Allan's agriculture background coupled with 12 years of service on the former Economic Development Committee for the Municipality of Kincardine gives him an informed perspective on the needs of the local economy. He brings extensive knowledge and advice pertaining to agricultural and business development.
